Montgomery County Libraries Presents One Book, One County With Adriana Trigiani Thursday, April 11, 2pm @ Ursinus College

Trigiani is the bestselling author of 16 books and is a television writer, film director and entrepreneur. Her new book, Tony's Wife, is set in the 1940s and tells the story of two talented working-class kids who marry and become a successful singing act, until time, temptation and the responsibilities of home and family derail their dreams. Event includes a talk by Ms. Trigiani, along with a book sale and signing. Tickets are available for $15-$20, plus service fee at <https://trigiani2019ursinus.brownpapertickets.com/>. UPV's own monthly book group will also be discussing this novel.

Email us at upvlibrary@comcast.net to sign up to receive our electronic newsletters. Be sure to get details on upcoming events like: UPV Railroad History Presentation, Spring Garden Lecture, Summer Reading Club, Snow Queen Play, and more!

Regular Monthly Activities (held every month, no registration required, just drop in!)
