Discovering our Garden Pollinators

March 23rd @ 7:00pm Indoors at the Library

Join The Upper Perkiomen Valley Garden Club at the library to kickoff Spring 2022! Our speaker, Karen Campbell, will discuss pollinators in our gardens. She will share amazing close-up images of flowers and nectaring insects. We'll discover what pollination is from the flowering plants perspective, who their pollinators are, and why insects service our plants. Make sure to wear your mask!

Introducing Kid's Create!

We have set aside our bright, blue bookshelf to highlight books local kids have written. We are unable to catalog these titles for listing in the computer, but they will be stickered and available for all to read in the library. The books will not be checked out.

- ✕ Authors should be of elementary age (roughly age 6-10)
- ✕ The title and author's name should be on the front cover. Do not put other personal information in the book.
- ✕ Books can be store-bought journals or homemade and bound but no uncovered spiral.
- ✕ Books can be handwritten, typed, colored, painted, collaged, all pictures, no pictures. We just want to share your story.
- ✕ Books can be from a school project or just for fun.
- ✕ No more than two titles per child please.

We are very excited to display your books in the library!

One-on-One Medicare Counseling

An Apprise representative will be available to answer all of your Medicare questions about old plans or new. Apprise will be available every 2nd and 4th Thursday of each month by appointment only. Contact the library to make an appointment today! This service is for residents of Montgomery and Bucks Counties only.

Request for UPHS Yearbooks

The library is looking to round out its collection of Upper Perk High School yearbooks. If you have one from any of the following years that you are willing to part with, consider donating it to us.

We have copies from the years not listed. Thank you!
